

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

WEDNESDAY EVE., NOV. 23, 1881.

A CRUSH of beauty, gallant men,
An organ's swelling tones,
The solemn rite, the wedding ring
This day made Thomas-Jones.

HEMP is worth $5.25 and $6 at Lexington.

THE DAILY BULLETIN is getting to be like the office of Jailer—everybody wants it.

If you want to get the kinks out of your legs effectually go to the hop at Neptune Hall to-night and dance them out.

OYSTERS (fit for a prince) served during the wee sma' hours as well as in the day time, in all styles at the European Hotel.

If you are wise, and it is supposed you are, you will get your fat oysters, (bulk or in cans) at the European Hotel, and then on Thanksgiving day you will give thanks in earnest.

A CITIZEN of Maysville, who means business, offers a reward of $500 to Professor Vennor, if he will correctly predict the time table of the Kentucky Central for the next thirty days.

THE wedding breakfast at the Thomas-Jones wedding was, perhaps, particularly good because it was prepared by Mr. F. M. Traxel. When you decide to get married go and see him.

Black Ties.

"License to link" was granted this week to the following colored couples:

Jennie Warner to Sanford Hord; Laura J. Grayson to Spencer G. Hunter

ELDER J. B. BRINEY lost one of his horses Tuesday night. The animal died from injuries received accidentally. Taking the expression of a distinguished politician as a cue it got "deep down in a well," and is now as defunct as he is.

HON. JOHN C. UNDERWOOD, some of the Kentucky papers say, contemplates starting a democratic paper at Cincinnati in opposition to the Enquirer. We are sorry to predict it, but a grease spot will be a circumstance to what will be left of him.

THE business house lately occupied by Arthur Berry Berry & Son, preparatory to Mr. R. Albert moving into it, is to be much improved. It is the intention of the owners to put in an iron front, with large plate glass windows, and otherwise make it attractive.

G. W. GEISEL and G. S. JUDD, two of Maysville's "boss shots" were out hunting Tuesday. They succeeded in "bagging" three quails and seven rabbits. They report a great scarcity of game.

The rabbits—

As being "few and far between,"
And the quails—

As being very seldom seen.

The C. & S. E. R. R.

M. J. E. Caily, who is engaged securing the rights of way for the C. & S. E. R. R., was at the European Hotel, Tuesday night. He informs us that the company has already paid $60,000 for the rights of way from Augusta to Newport. He is now on the route from Augusta to Johnson Junction, while the surveyors are between Washington and Maysville. Forty miles of the road will be ready for the ties and rails within the next four weeks. The company, Mr. Caily says, have all the money needed to build the road. He believes they would not come by way of Maysville for a bonus of $500,000. Well, well, how sad, get your handkerchiefs ready.

CORDED COUPLES.

Jones-Thomas.

The main topic in Maysville society for the last week or two has been the approaching marriage of Miss Bessie Thomas to Mr. Robinson J. Jones, of Cincinnati. They were married this morning at half past ten o'clock in the Church of the Nativity, by the Rev. J. D. Powers, in the presence of a large gathering of invited friends. Messrs. Hiram Pearce, Henry Chenoweth, George Bruce and Harry Talbot, popular society young gentlemen acted as ushers and attendants. The bridesmaids were Misses Anna Douglass January, Julia Chenoweth, Lottie Poyntz, Mary B. Pearce, Lizzie Cox and Lilian Frazee.

The bride was dressed in plain and brocade satin, veils and flowers and the bridesmaids in white mull, vallencienes and large Gainsborough hats trimmed with ostrich feathers.

The ceremony was brief, beautiful and very impressive. As the newly wedded pair left the church the ushers gave their arms to the bride's maids, leaving last the two youthful ones, Misses Cox and Frazee, who at the close of the ceremony came in front of the altar and standing at the side of the fount made a picture worthy of the brush of Titian.

The presents were numerous and costly and the wedding breakfast a marvel of delicacies.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones left by the train at noon, for Cincinnati, accompanied by the best wishes of their many friends.

GILMORE-BLACKERBY.

The marriage of Miss Louisa C. Gilmore, one of our most charming and amiable young ladies to Mr. W. O. Blackerby, of Bracken county, took place at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. S. M. Gilmore, this morning, Rev. J. B. Glorieux performing the ceremony. The wedding was a quiet one only the immediate friends of the family being present.

Busy People.

John Gibson, captain of the Electricity Corps—informing the public the day of the month.

Clay Sadler—explaining why the Kentucky Central trains do not arrive on time.

Ed. Nute—describing to the "tramp, tramp, tramp" fraternity the bill of fare at the alms house.

The legal voter—reason not necessary to state.

The BULLETIN advertisers—waiting upon an increasing trade.

Everybody connected with the live, wide-awake, newsy DAILY BULLETIN.

RIVER INTELLIGENCE.

The river is swelling fast.

The local packets continue to have plenty to do.

Seventy coal boats have left Pittsburgh since Monday.

The advance of the Pittsburgh coal fleet passed down this morning. The towboat Harry Brown is bringing twenty-four barges of coal this run, the largest tow ever brought out by any boat at one time. Shipments so far amount to about eleven million bushels.

Who is it?

A LETTER received by the DAILY BULLETIN this morning from a gentleman at LaFontaine, Ind., says that a Maysville man, now traveling in that state, although known to be married, is passing himself as single. He is very popular in female society, and the writer of the letter says he has already robbed one young woman of her virtue. Who can it be?

The Mayor's Court.

Nick Golenstein had his examining trial before Mayor January, last week, on the charge of carrying a concealed deadly weapon and was held to appear for further trial at the circuit court in the sum of $50. He furnished the bail and was released.

Wm. Ford was tried before the Mayor Tuesday, for carrying a concealed deadly weapon was fined $25 and sent to jail for ten days.

Ben. McDaniel was arraigned in the Mayor's court Tuesday, for furnishing liquor to a minor, and convicted of the offense he was fined $50. Failing to pay the fine or replevy it he was sent to jail for twenty-five days.

A good cigar is a prime consideration—and the best five and ten cent ones in the city may be had at the European Hotel.

Sales of Land.

The following changes in the ownership of land have been recorded at the office of the Clerk of the County, Court since our last report:

George Cox's heirs to Mary C. Cox, house and lot on Front street, between Market and Sutton streets, also, house and lot on Second street, between Sutton and Grave Alley. Allotment of dower.

Same, to Will H. Cox, lot on North side of Second street, between Market and Sutton streets, consideration $8,000.

ITEMS FROM OUR EXCHANGES AND OTHER SOURCES.

FLEMING COUNTY.

Corn sold at 75 cents a bushel. Gaines Dudley hunts with a $200 dog. The wheat crop continues to look well. R. S. Hudeon bought three thousand turkeys in Bath county.

Times: Flemingsburg is selling nearly twice as many goods as she was five years ago. All the business houses are having a good trade.

Times: Lloyd Corliss and Joseph Norris, of Brooksville, who have been here this week looking around with a view to opening a tobacco warehouse, returned home Wednesday night. They informed us that they expected to return and enter the market here for the weed.

Democrat: John Shea, of Maysville, assisted by John Mills and Avery Tully, spent Saturday night, Sunday and Sunday night in repairing a break in the fire box of the engine. The work was very well done and was completed just in time to start on the morning trip Monday.

Democrat: We met George Tudor, the retired stove and tin merchant, of Maysville, at Higginsport last Sunday. Mr. Tudor, accompanied by three others, was on his way to New Orleans in a little boat constructed for the purpose. Being in ill health he devised this plan as a mean of recreation and restoring his health. He will stop at all the towns along the river and inspect them. He has rifles, shot-guns, fishing tackle and plenty of provisions. The boat bears the ominous name, "Maysville 5, 15, 22."

LEWIS COUNTY.

Andrew Pool was kicked by a horse and badly hurt recently.

Andrew Parr, one of the oldest citizens of Adams county is dangerously sick.

A Cincinnati company has opened a freestone quarry on the Woodworth farm just back of Quincy.

Courier: Last Wednesday May's saw mill, on Blue creek, back of Rome, exploded, tearing out the end of the boiler, scalding Bud Newman and a man named Carter. Both men are said to be fatally injured.

BRACKEN COUNTY.

Four thousand dollars were paid out to railroad hands last week.

W. E. Willis, of Augusta, bought the wharfboat and was elected wharfmaster.

James Sanders, Jr., was drowned by the upsetting of a skiff at Rock Spring last week. The body was recovered.

Chronicle: A letter from Illinois conveys the sad information that Mr. Wm. Fullen, an old ex-Augustian, with whom many of our readers are acquainted, is fast failing with an incurable cancer.

The following marriage licenses have been issued since our last notice: Isadore B. Gillaspie to W. A. Mattox; Julia Carrigan to G. M. Parsons; Martha G. Lowe to H. T. Vanhook; Hester Ann Trailer to J. F. Mattingley; Loretta Smith to F. A. Fite.

TO THE VOTERS OF MASON COUNTY.

There having been expressed to me, a very general desire upon the part of my friends in all parts of the county, that I should become a candidate for the office of Sheriff at the next election, I, therefore, take this occasion to announce that if nominated by the Democratic party of Mason, by convention, or otherwise, I will consent to make the race.

Those who have heretofore supported me for the same office, are well advised of my capacity to perform its duties, and I have only to refer all others to the manner in which I executed the functions and duties of the office for the four years of my service, as the best guarantee of my diligence and fidelity if again elected.

I tender to those who have in the past supported me for office, my grateful acknowledgments for their generous partiality, and invoke from all other democrats of Mason a kind and liberal consideration of my fitness for the office, and claims to their support.

Should I receive the nomination I shall enter earnestly and industriously into the campaign, and if elected, will endeavor so to demean myself in office as to merit the approval of all good men. Very respectfully,

PERRY JEFFERSON.
